Oil Painting on Canvas

Curtis Verdun
2005, Signed by the artist

price: $185

This work is a genuine original oil painting signed by the artist. It comes ready to hang, even without a frame as the edges are staple-free, painted black and the artwork can be proudly displayed as is. Even though many collectors prefer the modern look of the simple black edges of these contemporary paintings, they can also be nicely framed for a more traditional framed art look.

This work is from the "Ethereal" gallery which offers abstract art where the central theme is the intangible; space, atmosphere, spirit. These original oil paintings lure the viewer into strange new worlds and unknown vistas. Interestingly, no brushes were used in any of these abstract works. Even the smooth, gradient passages were executed only with painting knives.

Shipping for this artwork is available to US and international destinations and comes with a 30-day money-back guarantee of the purchase price. For questions or comments about "Significance" or to commission a similar work, contact Curtis Verdun at www.GalerieVerdun.com
