

The Romans and the Barbarians

From the Gallery Series: Classical Greek

---

The Romans and the Barbarians

21" x 15"
Hydrostone Cast

Quincy Verdun
2004, Signed by the artist

price: $85

This spectacular relief sculpture is hand-cast by the artist, Quincy Verdun and comes in four sections, each section measures 10 1/2" x 7 1/2" x 1 3/4".

Numerous sarcophagi dating back to the Imperial age were decorated with incredible battle scenes. From the time of its origins, the Roman society was strongly rooted in a military spirit, which influenced its entire development, becoming a way of life. The tireless Roman spirit of expansionism with the help of a military practice that basically developed into a veritable art form, of and by itself, supported by firm faith in cultural supremacy of Rome. This led to the formation of one of the largest and longest-lived empires in history.

This work is from the "Classical Greek" series.

In the Renaissance, masters like Michelangelo, drew inspiration from the early works of the Greeks. In his works you have a sense of his admiration for classic Greek form. Rodin was also awe-struck by the great works of ancient Greece. He brought us incredible works such as The Thinker, The Kiss, and Victor Hugo and the Muses. Inspired by these, Quincy offers these open-edition casts which are reminiscent of this Classical Greek period.

Shipping for this artwork is available to US and international destinations and comes with a 30-day money-back guarantee of the purchase price. For questions or comments about "The Romans and the Barbarians" or to commission a similar work, contact Quincy Verdun at www.GalerieVerdun.com

www.GalerieVerdun.com