

The Seated Nude

From the Gallery Series: Nudes

The Seated Nude

22" x 28"
Oil Painting on Canvas

Quincy Verdun
2006, Signed by the artist

price: $1520

This work is an original painting, signed by the artist. It is shipped wired and ready for hanging. No framing is necessary as the gallery-wrapped edges are staple-free and painted black offering a modern, contemporary look. Of course for a more traditional framed art look, the painting can accept a variety of frames.

The human figure has been studied by virtually all artists, small and great, throughout history, and for good reason. There is hardly any other subject that offers so much inspiration and challenge, resulting in images with such wonderful beauty and intrigue. Rather than following classical form, Quincy has embraced a more modern style, regarding line, form and palette schemes. Inspired by the post-impressionist works of Gauguin and Modigliani, these wonderful nude paintings offer dazzling arrangements of color, texture and form.

Shipping for this artwork is available to US and international destinations and comes with a 30-day money-back guarantee of the purchase price. For questions or comments about "The Seated Nude" or to commission a similar work, contact Quincy Verdun at www.GalerieVerdun.com

"There is a logic of colors, and it is with this alone, and not with the logic of the brain, that the painter should conform."
